Articulate Storyline Fundamentals Certificate

To keep pace with today's fast-moving world, training organizations are increasingly including the use of more technology— especially eLearning. Articulate Storyline is an eLearning authoring tool built from the ground up with the goal of making the process of designing, developing, and implementing eLearning faster, easier, and more affordable. Using an intuitive interface, Articulate Storyline is easy enough for novices to learn quickly and powerful enough for advanced developers to build highly sophisticated and interactive eLearning. With its easy to use features (no programming required) and robust capabilities, Storyline lets you focus on what's most important: delivering more effective and appealing eLearning that saves your organization time and money.

BONUS ITEMS! This is the only Articulate Storyline course offering you:

- Dozens of free Storyline source files for self-paced learning.
- Detailed step-by-step exercises for hands-on practice.
- Custom Course Template
- Custom Interactions Template
- Instruction blended with practical design and development guidance from an award-winning eLearning developer with many years of industry experience.

This certificate program is designed for non-programmers who wish to learn basic to intermediate authoring features of Articulate Storyline. A basic understanding of computing concepts is required. A basic understanding of eLearning is helpful. Managers may also benefit from seeing the creation and development process so they may more accurately estimate course development time and cost. Already have basic Articulate Storyline experience? Consider registering for our “Articulate Storyline for Next Level Design Certificate.”

NEW Online Virtual Trainer Certificate

Kassy LaBorie, Principal Consultant,
Kassy LaBorie Consulting, LLC

Live Online (virtual instructor-led) training has become a standard for learning teams all over the world. Virtual classroom technology enables learning and development teams to reach all audiences, at any time of the day, with just a simple internet connection. But let's face it, learning to engage your audience using this type of technology is an immense challenge. It requires a unique skill set that combines using virtual presentation, facilitation, and design techniques with technical knowledge to skillfully deliver online learning events.

This certificate helps you to identify, develop, and practice the necessary skills to become savvy virtual trainers. The certificate also addresses what is required to be properly prepared to deliver online, what you need to do adjust your individual beliefs around online learning, and how your organization can begin to make the shifts necessary to support a virtual learning culture.

You should come prepared with an idea for a future live online event. You will complete a project related to that event, and prepare to deliver an excerpt from it in the last session for peer and instructor feedback.

BONUS ITEMS! Receive a participant guide containing job aids (including The Virtual Trainer's Competency Model and a 4-Step Virtual Activity Design Process); examples and platform checklists to help navigate various live online platforms (WebEx, Zoom, Adobe Connect and GotoTraining); and key points to remember for you to use as you design, develop, deliver, and support your live online courses.

This certificate program is designed for those who desire to build the skills necessary to design, develop, deliver, and support live online or virtual instructor led training strategies.

NEW Designing Effective Game-Based Training Programs Certificate

Andrew Hughes, President, Designing Digitally, Inc.

Game-Based Learning is more than badges, points, leaderboards, and trophies. This hands-on interactive certificate will walk you through the best practices for preparing and managing the development of a serious game for training. Experience first-hand how to determine the roles and mechanics that motivate gamers within any type of game-based experience. You'll learn how to identify opportunities for using games in learning experiences, and how to properly plan, manage, and track outcomes of serious game efforts for your organization. You'll also explore how to use game mechanics to motivate learners to acquire knowledge and skill, rather than merely receive and memorize information and how learners pull the data out of their experience and enjoy the time spent taking the learning module. By the end of this certificate, you'll understand WHY you should use serious games, as well as HOW and the WHEN to use game-based learning for training programs.

Looking to get started in game-based learning?

This is the session for you! Learn from one of the industry experts that has over a decade of building games for learning in the corporate training realm. This session will allow you to get a foundation of what it will take to build an effective learning experience that will engage and entertain your workforce.
